Subject: Countryside Well Rehab - Conversation

Tommy,

Regarding our conversation yesterday, I did have a couple of phone calls with Brandon Upton from Alsay Incorporated about the Countryside well rehab. He shared their process and recommendations for a project like this. He inquired when the bidding process will start. I let him know that the bid hasn't opened yet but should open shortly and suggested he stay tuned for the upcoming announcement. Additionally, I remember Sarah Michaels mentioning that they plan to reach out to vendors who have worked with us on similar projects in the past. Let me know if you need any additional info on this matter.

Thanks,

Augie Arredondo
