- B. Termination for Cause. If either Party materially breaches this Contract, the non-breaching Party will deliver written notice of such material breach to the breaching Party. Such notice will specify the nature of the material breach and inform the breaching Party that unless the breach is cured within ten business days of receipt of the notice, additional steps may be taken to terminate this Contract. If the breaching Party begins a good faith attempt to cure the material breach within ten business days, then and in that instance, the ten business-day period may be extended by the non-breaching Party, so long as the breaching Party continues to pursue a cure diligently to completion and continues to make a good faith attempt to cure the material breach. If, in the opinion of the non-breaching Party, the breaching Party does not cure the breach within ten business days or otherwise fails to make any diligent attempt to correct the material breach, the breaching Party will be deemed to be in breach and the non-breaching Party may, in addition to seeking the remedies available under this Contract and the law, terminate this Contract.
