The City, via the Purchasing Department, will be using Purple Wave for online auctions and for surplus management services. Purple Wave specializes in auctions for school districts, governments, and other public entities. Purple Wave auction services reduce service fees paid directly from the City and promotes a higher return rate for auction sales. By using Purple Wave, we are significantly increasing the number of bidders our auction items reach, with item views exceeding 100 views per item. Purple Wave partners with Copart, a global provider of online vehicle auction services, which ensures our surplus vehicles and heavy equipment reach our target audience on a mass scale.
