Hi, I just called your office today. Could someone please take a look at the email we sent? Your facility is within 300 meters of our restaurant, and your "no objection" reply is the only thing we're waiting on for the city to issue our Beer & Wine license. We're eager to start doing business and be able to sell, so please let us know if you need any information from us.

Hi there,

We're Tokyo Bao, a family-friendly restaurant at 3729 E League City Pkwy, Suite 110. We're in the process of applying for a Beer & Wine license, and the City asked us to request a small variance because our suite is within 300 feet of your property line. City Council will ask whether your daycare supports or opposes the variance.

If you're comfortable, could you provide a short no-objection note on your letterhead? We commit to these safeguards:

- No exterior alcohol signage; no outdoor consumption
- Seated dining service only; strict ID checks; all servers TABC-certified

You can use this language (feel free to edit):

[Daycare Name] has been informed of Tokyo Bao's request for a variance from the 300-foot distance requirement for beer & wine service at 3729 E League City Pkwy #110. Based on the safeguards described, we do not oppose the variance.

[Name, Title] — [Daycare Name] — [Date]

Happy to stop by or call if helpful.

Thank you so much for your time and consideration.

Best regards,
Zijian Luo
